

B Arch Fender

TJDA-B Arch Fenders are single piece rubber moldings with an integral vulcanized UHMW-PE low friction face pad in black, and other color options. The low-friction properties of the TJDA-B fender make it ideal for locations where shear forces must be minimized.

Arch fenders are used wherever simplicity and toughness are essential, such as general-purpose berths and exposed sites. They are easy to install horizontally or vertically and need little maintenance.