

NOFI BoomVane system

The BoomVane system, is a unique system when used together with a NOFI Current Buster. It is easy to operate and cost-efficient, as well as reduces the operator's response time significantly. Safety is also an important factor as there is only one vessel involved, which eliminates communication between two vessels and the risk of damaging the equipment.